

CALL FOR APPLICATIONS

Brussels Summer School for Young Leaders

EU as a Global Actor

Applications are now open for the Brussels Summer School for Young Leaders with a theme of 'EU as a Global Actor' that will again be held at the Institute d'Études Européennes - Université libre de Bruxelles (ULB) in Brussels from 22 June – 26 June 2020.

Debate Europe's Challenges with EU & NATO Leaders!

As a leading Summer School held in the 'Capital of Europe', the one-week program aims to immerse undergraduate and postgraduate university students as well as young professionals into the theory and practice of EU foreign and security policy-making.

Through a series of lectures, debates, workshops and study trips to EU institutions --- the Council, European Parliament and European External Action Service (EEAS) --- the Brussels Summer School for Young Leaders provides the participants with a policymaker's 'insider' perspective into how the European Union and its leaders deal with the closely interlinked key contemporary security, economic and political challenges facing the bloc. The program builds upon our strong links with Brussels-based institutions and organizations. The lectures and discussions will be conducted by a number of senior European Union leaders, senior policy makers, top EU and foreign diplomats, and leading academic experts (see the program HERE).

GUEST OF HONOR & KEYNOTE SPEAKER

H.E. Věra Jourová

Vice-President of European Commission for Values and Transparency

The Brussels Summer School for Young Leaders will broaden your knowledge of how the European Union functions and how it deals with different security, economic and political challenges it faces in today's increasingly complex international system. This one-week of academic and life-enhancing immersion in Brussels – Europe's Capital City – will ultimately expand your professional, academic and social networks to help enhance your future career prospects. The participants will be awarded 3 ECTS credit points and receive 'Certificate of Participation' confirming their active participations and successful completion of this academic program.
