

Master of Arts in European Public Policy

Become an Expert

The Master of Arts in European Public Policy is a one-year degree that prepares you for careers related to the European Union (EU). The program combines rigorous, multidisciplinary academic instruction on EU policies and activities, with hands-on, practical training in the skills and techniques required to succeed in the broad EU policy community. Career and placement mentoring is available throughout the year.

Gain an insider's understanding of the functioning of the EU across a wide range of policy areas including climate, environment, energy, data protection, AI regulation, sustainability, the euro, migration, foreign policy, security, and defense. Build the skills to work effectively in roles such as contract agent, official, consultant, diplomat, think-tanker, NGO staffer, lobbyist, government affairs expert, business, regional or professional representative, journalist, and more.
