

European Union
Delegation to Singapore

You are cordially invited to the EU Annual Human Rights Day Seminar

"Towards a More Cohesive Society in the Context of Counter-Terrorism and Countering of Violent Extremism"

12 December, 9.00am to 2.00pm
Intercontinental Hotel, Ballrooms II & III
80 Middle Road, Singapore 188966

Human Rights Day is commemorated around the world every year on 10 December, under the auspices of the United Nations. Building on past practice, the European Union Delegation to Singapore presents its annual seminar to mark and raise awareness of Human Rights Day. This year's seminar examines the importance of prevention and rehabilitation when dealing with radicalisation and the role that social cohesion plays in this.

8.30 – 9am	Registration
9 – 9.10am	Welcome Remarks by H.E. Barbara Plinkert European Union Ambassador to Singapore
9.10 – 9.30am	Keynote Speech by Dr Shashi Jayakumar Senior Fellow & Head of the Centre for National Security, Executive Coordinator for Future Issues and Technology
9.30 – 10.30am	Panel 1 – Pre-radicalisation & Prevention of Radicalisation
10.30 – 11am	Coffee Break
11am-Noon	Panel 2 – Rehabilitation
Noon–1pm	Panel 3 – Approaches to Strengthening Social Cohesion and Inclusion
1–1.20pm	Concluding Remarks by Dr Daniela Pisoiu Senior Researcher, Austrian Institute of International Relations, Radicalisation Awareness Network
1.20 – 2pm	Lunch

Please email Magdalene.CHOO-JOO-HONG@eeas.europa.eu to register for the event by 6 December. Admission is Free.

#EU4HumanRights